

West Bottoms WHISKEY Co.

To whom it may concern,

I highly recommend any business owner or executive work with James Sumaya of Schooley Mitchell. We engaged James to audit our merchant services expenses. We were excited to see what Schooley Mitchell could do for our organization.

West Bottoms Whiskey is a distillery that blends, distills, and ages several high-quality, award-winning whiskeys. Through our Cocktail Parlor, we also serve up a unique mix of cocktails in a fun and inviting atmosphere.

James's team analyzed our merchant services invoices to determine whether or not savings could be found. Schooley Mitchell takes all the work off the client's plate, and this was evident from the get-go. All that was required was a quick conversation about our set up, access to our invoices and contracts, and then Schooley Mitchell did all the work from there.

When James came back to me and presented the report, it was a relief to hear that our expenses are already optimized. This gives us great peace of mind, knowing we haven't been overpaying in the past, and that our budget is going towards what matters most. Even better? Since Schooley Mitchell's only fees are a portion of savings found, their analysis came at no expense.

Overall, my experience with Schooley Mitchell and James Sumaya was excellent, and I wouldn't hesitate to recommend them. James is professional and passionate about the work he does!

Sincerely,

Alex Lindsey
